Linguistics

Undergraduate Study

Linguistics is a cross-disciplinary program in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences designed to meet the needs of students interested in various aspects of language—its structure, history, varieties, meanings, and uses. The program includes courses in anthropology, communication disorders, computer science, English, psychology, and speech communication and world languages and cultures, thus providing a multi-disciplinary approach to the study of human language.

Courses in linguistics serve as background for students interested in any career that involves working with language, such as teaching English both as a first and as a second language, second language studies, psycholinguistics, cross-cultural communication, linguistic anthropology, computational linguistics, speech-language pathology, and audiology.

In the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, courses in linguistics can be applied as electives or as part of the group requirements. They may also be used in a minor or in a major.

Majors in linguistics complete a minimum of 36 hours in linguistics with a grade of C or better in each linguistics course. Courses specifically required are:

- LING 119 Introduction to World Languages 3
- LING 120 Computers and Language 3
- LING 207 Introduction to Symbolic Logic 3
- LING 219 Introduction to Linguistics 3
- LING 220 Descriptive English Grammar 3
- LING 309 Introduction to Culture and Language 3
- LING 371 Phonetics and Phonology 3
- LING 413 Psychology of Language 3
- LING 420 History of the English Language 3
- LING 437 Grammatical Analysis 3

In addition, linguistics majors must choose 6 credits of courses from one or more of the following areas:

Communication Disorders

- LING 275 Introduction to Communication Disorders 3
- LING 286 Communicating with the Deaf 3
- LING 471 Language and Reading Development in Children 3

Computers and Linguistics

- LING 510 Introduction to Computers in Applied Linguistics 3
- LING 520 Computational Analysis of English 3
- LING 526 Computer-Assisted Language Learning 3

Second Language Studies

- LING 425 Second Language Learning and Teaching 3
- LING 518 Teaching English as a Second Language Methods and Materials 3
- LING 519 Second Language Assessment 3
- LING 524 Literacy: Issues and Methods for Nonnative Speakers of English 3
- LING 525 Methods in Teaching Listening and Speaking Skills to Nonnative Speakers of English 3

Sociolinguistics and Language

- LING 305 Language, Thought and Action 3
- LING 422 Women, Men, and the English Language 3
- LING 514 Sociolinguistics 3
- LING 527 Discourse Analysis 3

Spanish Linguistics

- LING 352 Introduction to Spanish Phonology 3
- LING 462 Contrastive Analysis of Spanish/English for Translators 3
- LING 463 Hispanic Dialectology 3

Additional courses in linguistics are available through study abroad, especially LING 398X. Majors in linguistics must show proficiency in a foreign language equivalent to that achieved after two years of university-level study. Alternatively, majors in linguistics can demonstrate university-level study in two foreign languages of at least one year each.

See also the 4-year plan grid for Linguistics showing courses by semester.

Minors in linguistics are individually tailored to the interests of the student, who consults with the linguistics advisor to develop the minor program of study. All minors must have a minimum of 15 credits in linguistics, of which 6 must be in courses numbered over 300. All programs must include LING 219 Introduction to Linguistics.

Communication Proficiency requirement: The linguistics program requires grades of C+ or better in each of the following:

- ENGL 150 Critical Thinking and Communication 3
- ENGL 250 Written, Oral, Visual, and Electronic Composition 3
- or ENGL 250H Written, Oral, Visual, and Electronic Composition: Honors 3
- LIB 160 Information Literacy 1

Continuing ENGL Proficiency is based on one course from ENGL 305, ENGL 314, a WLC 370-379 course, or a CL ST 370-379 course.

For information about using linguistics courses in an interdisciplinary studies major, see Liberal Arts and Sciences, Cross-Disciplinary Studies.

Graduate Study

A graduate minor in linguistics permits students to investigate various aspects of linguistics, emphasizing the ability to think about language in a systematic and disciplined way and to apply the methods of the field to research problems in their own disciplines. Graduate courses for the minor may be cross-listed with courses in Anthropology, Communication Disorders, Computer Science, English, Psychology, and World Languages and Cultures.

For the master’s degree, a declared minor consists of 9 credits in linguistics including two foundation courses:

- LING 511 Introduction to Linguistic Analysis 3

One of the following:

- LING 514 Sociolinguistics 3
- LING 527 Discourse Analysis 3
- LING 537 Corpus Approaches to Grammatical Analysis 3

And one elective from the list of courses approved for graduate credit 3

Total Credits 9

For the Ph.D. degree, the minor consists of 12 credits in linguistics including:

- LING 511 Introduction to Linguistic Analysis 3
- LING 537 Corpus Approaches to Grammatical Analysis 3
- And two electives from the list of courses approved for graduate credit 6

Total Credits 12

Additional courses beyond those listed below may be used as electives. The chair of the supervisory committee can provide information about these.

At least one member of the linguistics faculty will serve on a student’s program of study committee. A list of faculty members may be obtained from the Linguistics program website. Ph.D. candidates will write one section of the preliminary study committee. A list of faculty members may be obtained from the Linguistics program website. Ph.D. candidates will write one section of the preliminary examination on an area of linguistics. Students in Teaching English as a Second Language: Applied Linguistics are not eligible for a graduate minor in linguistics.

Courses primarily for undergraduates:

- LING 119. Introduction to World Languages. (Cross-listed with WLC). (3-0) Cr. 3. Study of language diversity and the personal, social and political effects of diversity. Language cultures, attitudes toward language and language use, language and culture, multilingualism, foreign language learning, written codes, official languages, and language policy. Meets International Perspectives Requirement.
LING 120. Computers and Language.  (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. Introduction to the use of linguistic knowledge in computer applications today and the basic computational techniques used in such applications. The development of these techniques throughout the history of computational linguistics. How the study of language has contributed to the advancement of technology and how certain computational problems have influenced the way linguists study language.

LING 207. Introduction to Symbolic Logic.  (Cross-listed with PHIL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Introduction to fundamental logical concepts and logical symbolism. Development of natural deduction through first order predicate logic with identity. Application to arguments in ordinary English and to philosophical issues. Linguistics majors should take LING/PHIL 207 as early as possible.

LING 219. Introduction to Linguistics.  (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: Sophomore classification. Introduction to linguistic concepts and principles of linguistic analysis with English as the primary source of data. Sound and writing systems, sentence structure, vocabulary, and meaning. Issues in the study of usage, regional and social dialects, language acquisition, and language change.

LING 220. Descriptive English Grammar.  (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: ENGL 250. Overview of grammatical structures and functions. Parts of speech; phrase, clause, and sentence structure; sentence types and sentence analysis; rhetorical grammar and sentence style; terminology. Not a remedial, English composition, or ESL course.

LING 275. Introduction to Communication Disorders.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. Survey of nature, causes, and types of major communication disorders including phonological, adult and child language, voice, cleft palate, fluency, and hearing disorders.

LING 286. Communicating with the Deaf.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. Learn to communicate with the deaf using Signed English and Signed Pidgin English. Other topics covered include types, causes, and consequences of hearing loss, hearing technology (hearing aids, assistive listening devices, and cochlear implants), education of hearing-impaired children, Deaf culture, and the history of manual communication.

LING 305. Language, Thought and Action.  (Cross-listed with SP CM). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: ENGL 250. The study of symbolic processes and how meaning is conveyed in words, sentences, and utterances; discussion of modern theories of meaning; and an exploration of relationships among language, thought, and action.

LING 309. Introduction to Culture and Language.  (Cross-listed with ANTHR). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: ANTHR 201 recommended. Introduction to study of language, culture and society from an anthropological perspective. Focus on language and thought, ethnography of speaking, discourse and narrative, writing and literacy, and media communication. Discussion of key theories and methods of linguistic anthropology.

LING 352. Introduction to Spanish Phonology.  (Cross-listed with SPAN). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: SPAN 301, SPAN 303 or SPAN 304. An introductory study of the articulation, classification, distribution, and regional variations of the sounds of the Spanish language. Taught in Spanish.

LING 354. Introduction to Spanish-English Interpretation.  (Dual-listed with LING 554). (Cross-listed with SPAN). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: SPAN 351. Introduction to the theory, methods, techniques, and problems of consecutive and simultaneous interpretation. Consideration of material from business, agriculture, law, design, medicine, literature, advertisement, and sports. Taught in Spanish.

LING 371. Phonetics and Phonology.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: ENGL 219 Analysis of speech through study of individual sounds, their variations, and relationships in context; English phonology; practice in auditory discrimination and transcription of sounds of American English; description of speech sounds in terms of their production, transmission, and perception.

LING 413. Psychology of Language.  (Cross-listed with PSYCH). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: PSYCH 101 Introduction to psycholinguistics. Topics may include origin of language, speech perception, language comprehension, reading, bilingualism, brain bases of language, and computational modeling of language processes.

LING 420. History of the English Language.  (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: ENGL 219 or LING 219 Comparison of English to other languages by family background and by type. Analysis of representative Old, Middle, Early Modern and present-day English texts, including both literary works and non-literary documents.

LING 422. Women, Men, and the English Language.  (Cross-listed with ENGL, W S). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 219 or LING 219. The ways men and women differ in using language in varied settings and the ways in which language both creates and reflects gender divisions.

LING 425. Second Language Learning and Teaching.  (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 219 or LING 219; junior classification. The process of second language learning and principles and techniques of teaching second languages. Learning and teaching in specific situations and for particular purposes. Current applications of technology in teaching and assessment.

LING 437. Grammatical Analysis.  (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 220 or LING 220; ENGL 219 or LING 219 or introductory course in linguistics; junior classification. Theories and methods for analysis of syntax and morphology.

LING 442. Contrastive Analysis of Spanish/English for Translators.  (Cross-listed with SPAN). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: SPAN 351. Linguistic study of the major differences between the Spanish and English grammatical systems and their applications in the translation of Spanish to English. Taught in Spanish.

LING 463. Hispanic Dialectology.  (Cross-listed with SPAN). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: SPAN 352. Intensive study of the phonology, morphosyntax and lexis of the Hispanic dialects of Spain and Latin America in their historical context. Taught in Spanish.

LING 471. Language and Reading Development in Children.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: CMDIS 275 or PSYCH 230 or ENGL 219 or LING 219. Theories and developmental processes related to the components of language (semantics, syntax, morphology, phonology, and pragmatics); the development of metalinguistic knowledge; theories and developmental processes of reading.

LING 480A. Topics in Communication Disorders: Anatomy and Physiology of Speech and Hearing.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: CMDIS/LING 275, CMDIS/LING 371, and BIOL 255; permission of instructor. Guided examination of topics in preparation for graduate work in Speech-Language Pathology or Audiology. Primary course delivery by WWW.

LING 480B. Topics in Communication Disorders: Articulation and Phonological Disorders.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: CMDIS/LING 275, CMDIS/LING 371, and BIOL 255; permission of instructor. Guided examination of topics in preparation for graduate work in Speech-Language Pathology or Audiology. Primary course delivery by WWW.

LING 480C. Topics in Communication Disorders: Evaluation and diagnosis of communication disorders.  (Cross-listed with CMDIS). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: CMDIS/LING 275, CMDIS/LING 371, and BIOL 255; permission of instructor. Guided examination of topics in preparation for graduate work in Speech-Language Pathology or Audiology. Primary course delivery by WWW.

LING 490D. Independent Study: Linguistic Anthropology. (Cross-listed with ANTHR). Cr. 1-5. Repeatable, maximum of 9 credits. Prereq: 9 credits in anthropology. No more than 9 credits of Anthr 490 may be counted toward graduation.

Courses primarily for graduate students, open to qualified undergraduates:

LING 508. Special Topics. (Cross-listed with ENGL, HCI). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 510 or LING 510 or an introductory course in linguistics.

LING 511. Introduction to Linguistic Analysis. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Prerequisites and methods of linguistic analysis with emphasis on phonology, morphology, and syntax. Description of linguistic variation and current theoretical approaches to linguistics.

LING 512. Second Language Acquisition. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Theory, methods, and results of second language acquisition research with emphasis on approaches relevant to second language teaching.

LING 513. Language Assessment Practicum. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S.SS. Prereq: ENGL 519 or LING 519. Advanced practicum in language assessment.

LING 514. Sociolinguistics. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Prerequisites and methods of examining language in its social setting. Analysis of individual characteristics (e.g., age, gender, ethnicity, social class, region), interactional factors (e.g., situation, topic, purpose) and national policies affecting language use.

LING 515. Statistical Natural Language Processing. (Cross-listed with ENGL, HCI). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: STAT 330 or equivalent, recommended ENGL 219 or LING 219, or ENGL 511 or LING 511. Introduction to computational techniques involving human language and speech in applications such as information retrieval and extraction, automatic text categorization, word prediction, intelligent Web searching, spelling and grammar checking, speech recognition and synthesis, statistical machine translation, n-grams, POS-tagging, word-sense disambiguation, on-line lexicons and thesauri, markup languages, corpus analysis, and Python programming language.

LING 518. Teaching English as a Second Language Methods and Materials. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Introduction to approaches, methods, techniques, materials, curricular design, and assessment for various levels of ESL instruction. Attention to issues related to the teaching of listening, speaking, reading, writing, vocabulary, pronunciation, and culture.

LING 519. Second Language Assessment. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511. Principles of second language assessment including reliability, validity, authenticity and practicality. Constructing, scoring, interpreting, and evaluating second language tests for a variety of situations.

LING 520. Computational Analysis of English. (Cross-listed with ENGL, HCI). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 510 or LING 510, and ENGL 511 or LING 511. Concepts and practices for analysis of English by computer with emphasis on the applications of computational analysis to problems in applied linguistics such as corpus analysis and recognition of learner language in computer-assisted learning and language assessment.

LING 524. Literacy: Issues and Methods for Nonnative Speakers of English. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Theoretical and practical issues and techniques in the teaching of literacy in a variety of contexts, involving children and adults at basic skill levels and teens and adults in academic and vocational programs.

LING 525. Methods in Teaching Listening and Speaking Skills to Nonnative Speakers of English. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Theoretical and practical issues and techniques in the teaching of second language pronunciation, listening, and speaking skills. Topics will be relevant to those intending to teach in various contexts involving both K-12 and adult learners.

LING 526. Computer-Assisted Language Learning. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Theory, research, and practice in computer use for teaching nonnative speakers of English. Methods for planning and evaluating computer-based learning activities.

LING 527. Discourse Analysis. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. S. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Methods and theoretical foundations for linguistic approaches to discourse analysis. Applications of discourse analysis to the study of texts in a variety of settings, including academic and research contexts.

LING 528. English for Specific Purposes. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511 or an introductory course in linguistics. Issues and techniques in analyzing, teaching, and assessing English for specific purposes. Topics include theories of specific purpose language use, analysis of learner needs in target language contexts, and corpus-informed syllabus and materials development for teaching and assessment.

LING 537. Corpus Approaches to Grammatical Analysis. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 220 or LING 220; ENGL 219, LING 219, ENGL 511, LING 511, or an introductory course in linguistics; graduate classification. Corpus-informed analysis of syntax in authentic writing and speech, with emphasis on approaches used in applied linguistics: rationalist, empirical, functional, cognitive, and pedagogical.

LING 554. Introduction to Spanish-English Interpretation. (Dual-listed with LING 354). (Cross-listed with SPAN). (3-0) Cr. 3. F.S. Prereq: SPAN 351. Introduction to the theory, methods, techniques, and problems of consecutive and simultaneous interpretation. Consideration of material from business, agriculture, law, design, medicine, literature, advertisement, and sports. Taught in Spanish. Meets International Perspectives Requirement.

LING 588. Supervised Practice Teaching in Teaching English as a Second Language. (Cross-listed with ENGL). (1-5) Cr. 3. F.S.SS. Prereq: 9 credits toward the TESL/TEFL Certificate, 15 credits toward the TESL/LAL master’s degree, or 18 credits completed toward the ESL Endorsement option. Intensive observation of ESL instruction and supervised practice in teaching learners of English in a context appropriate to the student teacher’s goals. ENGL 588 cannot be used for teacher licensure and cannot be taken during student teaching.

LING 590. Special Topics. (Cross-listed with ENGL). Cr. arr. Prereq: Permission of the English Department Graduate Studies Committee according to guidelines available in the department office.

LING 590B. Special Topics: Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL)/Applied Linguistics. (Cross-listed with ENGL). Cr. arr. Repeatable. Prereq: Permission of the Director of Graduate Education according to guidelines available online.
LING 590G. Special Topics: Applied Linguistics and Technology.
(Cross-listed with ENGL). Cr. arr. Repeatable. Prereq: Permission of the Director of Graduate Education according to guidelines available online.

(3-0) Cr. 3. Repeatable, maximum of 6 credits. Prereq: 6 credits in TESL/Applied Linguistics Intensive study of applied linguistic theory as it relates to specific issues in language acquisition, teaching, or use.

(Cross-listed with ENGL). Cr. arr. Repeatable.

(Cross-listed with ENGL). Cr. arr. Repeatable.

Courses for graduate students:

(Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 511 or LING 511, ENGL 517 or LING 517, ENGL 519 or LING 519 Survey of research traditions in applied linguistics. Focus on theoretical and practical aspects of quantitative and qualitative approaches to applied linguistic study, including experimental and quasieperimental methods, classroom observation and research, introspective methods, elicitation techniques, case studies, interactional analysis, ethnography, and program evaluation. Computational tools and resources for linguistic research will be highlighted.

(Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. F. Prereq: ENGL 510 or LING 510, ENGL 511 or LING 511, ENGL 519 or LING 519 Principles and practice for the use and study of computers and the Internet in second language assessment.

(Cross-listed with ENGL). (3-0) Cr. 3. Repeatable. Prereq: ENGL 510 or LING 510, ENGL 511 or LING 511 Topic changes each semester. Topics include advanced methods in natural language processing, technology and literacy in a global context, feedback in CALL programs, technology and pronunciation, and advances in language assessment.

(Cross-listed with ENGL). (1-5) Cr. 3. F.S.SS. Prereq: ENGL 510 or LING 510, ENGL 626 or LING 626, or equivalent; at least 2nd year PhD student in Applied Linguistics and Technology Focus on integrating theoretical knowledge with practical expertise. Assess client needs; develop, integrate, and evaluate solutions. Practical understanding of computer applications used in multimedia development. Create web-based or CD-ROM-based multimedia materials. Work with advanced authoring applications.
